

Self-pay test		Price (tax included)
Self-pay checkup (basic)	Medical interview, cervical cancer screening, transvaginal ultrasound	9,350	10,290
Self-pay checkup (advanced)	Self-pay checkup (basic) + vaginal discharge (chlamydia, gonorrhea, HPV), blood tests (infectious disease, blood type, thyroid function, blood count, liver function, cholesterol, kidney function, blood sugar, etc.)	27,500	30,250
Self-pay checkup (hormones)	Self-pay checkup (basic) + blood tests (infectious disease, blood type, thyroid function, blood count, liver function, cholesterol, kidney function, blood sugar, hormone testing, etc.)	19,800	21,780
Self-pay checkup (STD)	Vaginal discharge (chlamydia, gonorrhea, mycoplasma), blood testing (hepatitis B, hepatitis C, HIV, syphilis)	9,350	10,290
Transvaginal ultrasound	Look at the uterus and ovaries.	5,830	6,420
Endometrial cytology (uterine body cancer test)	Put a fine brush inside the uterus to examine the cells of the endometrium.	5,720	6,300
AMH (Anti-Mullerian hormone)	We can estimate how many eggs are left in the ovaries.	7,700	8,470
Tumor markers CEA, CA125, CA19-9	We look for parameters that can be elevated in ovarian cancer and other types of cancer.	6,600	7,260
High-risk HPV	Check for certain types of HPV that put you at risk for cervical cancer.	6,600	7,260
Thyroid function test		3,300	3,630
Rubella antibody	Check your rubella immunity	3,300	3,630
Measles antibody	Check your measles immunity	3,300	3,630
Rubella and measles antibody	Check both rubella and measles immunity	6,600	7,260
Blood cell count and biochemistry	Check anemia, liver function and kidney function	7,700	8,470
Blood cell count	Check anemia	2,200	2,420
HTLV-1 antibody	Leukemia virus which can be transmitted via breastmilk	2,200	2,420
Mycoplasma and ureaplasma	Sexually transmitted disease	9,900	10,890
Consultation fee (for initial visit)		3,850	4,240
Consultation fee (for second visit and beyond)		2,750	3,030
Medical certificate		4,400	4,840